The Financial Assessment Tool

applauds achievements, identifies goals and targets areas for further concentration before awarding users a financial health score between zero and 100. From here:

- ➔ Gain a better understanding of your personal financial health.
- ➔ Pinpoint focus areas and develop a strategy to address them.
- ➔ Be better prepared to meet with a personal financial manager or counselor.
- ➔ Use a holistic approach, including short- and long-term financial goals, insurance needs, estate planning and credit usage — it's not just about your score.
